1. Introduction

This Refund and Cancellation Policy outlines the procedures and responsibilities regarding refunds, cancellations, exchanges, and replacements related to purchases made through the Olopo User Application (the "App") and the Olopo Bizz Application for merchants ("Merchants"). Aspirom Technologies Pvt. Ltd. ("Company," "we," "our") strives to ensure smooth transactions through the App, but it is essential for both users and merchants to understand the specifics related to refunds, cancellations, and issue resolution.

By using the App, you ("User," "Merchant," or "Company") agree to abide by this policy. If you do not agree with the terms, you must refrain from using the App.

2. Scope

This policy applies to:

- Users: End users (customers) who make purchases via the Olopo User Application for goods, services, or reward point-related transactions.
- Merchants: Businesses that purchase reward points or packages through the Olopo Bizz Application to offer rewards to users or for other business purposes.
- The Company: Aspirom Technologies Pvt. Ltd., responsible for providing the platform and ensuring technical support for reward point purchases.

The Company is not directly responsible for processing refunds or cancellations for merchant-to-user transactions, as these are handled by the respective merchants. However, the Company does facilitate refunds and cancellations for certain technical or transactional issues related to purchases of reward points or packages by merchants or users.

3. Refund Policy (For Users)

3.1 Merchant Responsibility for Refunds

Refunds for purchases made by users through the App are the responsibility of the respective participating merchants. The Company does not handle refunds directly for products or services purchased by users.

- Direct Communication: If a user wishes to request a refund, they must contact the merchant directly using the contact details provided during the purchase.
- Merchant Policies: Each merchant has its own refund policy that may include specific conditions for issuing refunds, timelines for processing, and refund methods. Users should review the merchant's refund policy before finalizing their purchase.

3.2 Non-Refundable Items

Certain items may not be eligible for refunds, as specified in the merchant's policy. These may include:

- Customized products (e.g., personalized items)
- Digital content (e.g., downloadable software or media)
- Services that have already been rendered (e.g., consulting, digital services)
- Items on clearance or marked as non-refundable

Clear Communication: Merchants are required to clearly communicate non-refundable items to users at the time of purchase. It is the user's responsibility to review these terms before completing the purchase.

3.3 Process for Refund Requests

- Initiating a Refund: To initiate a refund, users must contact the merchant directly. Users should provide all necessary details, such as:
 - Order number

- Merchant Cancellation Policies: Each merchant will have its own cancellation policy, including time limits for initiating a cancellation, potential fees, and conditions for cancellations.

4.2 Cancellation Requests

- Timeliness: Users must request cancellations immediately after placing an order. Any delays in cancellation requests may result in the inability to cancel the order, especially if the merchant has already processed or shipped the product.
- Order Confirmation: Users should have their order confirmation details (such as order number and transaction ID) ready when contacting the merchant. This helps expedite the cancellation process.

4.3 Review Order Details Before Confirmation

It is advisable to carefully review the order confirmation before finalizing any purchase. Once confirmed, the terms of cancellation will be governed by the merchant's specific cancellation policy.

4.4 Cancellation for Points Purchased from the Company

- Cancellation Process: In cases where a user purchases reward points from the Company and the transaction is successful but the points are not credited, the user may request a cancellation of the transaction.
